Modelling this made it apparent that readiness and booking info are different records. This is different from week 4 as this week we made a diagram and last week we simply did writing based on the provided information, this provided a much more interesting way to approach the topic.

